ALEXANDRIA, VA., WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 31, 1906.

PRICE 2 CENTS.

A Valuable Agent.

The glycerine employed in Dr. Pierce's medicine greatly enhances the medicinal properties which it extracts and holds in solution much better than alcohol would. It also possesses medicinal properties of its own, being a valuable demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic and antiferment. It adds greatly to the efficacy of the Black Cherrybark, Golden Seal root, Stone root and Queen's root, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery," in subduing chronic, or lingering coughs, bronchitis, throat and lung affections, for all of which these agents are recommended by standard medical authorities. In all cases where there is a wasting away of flesh, loss of appetite, with weak stomach, as in the early stages of consumption, there can be no doubt that glycerine acts as a valuable nutritive and tonic. It is the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Queen's root and Black Cherrybark in promoting digestion and building up the health and strength, controlling the cough and bringing about a healthy condition of the whole system. Of course, it must not be expected to work miracles. It will not cure consumption except in its earlier stages. It will cure very severe, obstinate, chronic coughs, bronchitis and laryngeal troubles, and chronic sore throat with hoarseness. In acute coughs it is not so effective. It is in the lingering coughs, or those of long standing, even when accompanied by bleeding from lungs, that it has performed its most marvelous cures. Send for and read the Little Book of extracts, treating of the properties and uses of the several medicinal roots that enter into Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and learn why this medicine has such a wide range of application in the cure of diseases. It is sent free. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. The "discovery" contains no alcohol or harmful habit-forming drug. Ingredients all printed on each bottle wrapper in plain English. Sick people, especially those suffering from diseases of long standing, are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and is handled confidentially. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-covered copy.

Tonight is Halloween.
There is no night in the year upon which the popular imagination has stamped a more peculiar character than All Hallow's Eve. The leading idea respecting it is that it is the time of all others when supernatural influences prevail. It is the night set apart for a universal walking abroad of spirits.
Divination is then believed to attain its highest power and the gift of calling spirits "from the vasty deep" becomes available to all.

In the fireside customs of this night the world over there is a marked uniformity. Nuts and apples are everywhere in demand to such an extent that the night is often known in England as nutcracker night. The nuts are not only cracked and eaten, but used to foretell the issue of love affairs. There is the custom, for instance, of putting a nut named after a lover upon the stove or grate. If it cracks or jumps, the lover will prove faithful; if it begins to burn, he has a true regard for the person making the trial.

The most popular sport with apples on Hallowe'en is to float a lot of them in a tub of water and let the children duck their heads into the water and try to catch the apples with their mouths.
Robert Burns describes a Scotch ceremony called "The Three Dishes, or Lugsies." One dish is filled with clean water, another with dirty water and a third is left empty. They are ranged on the hearth and one by one those making the trial are led up to them blindfolded.
If one dips his finger into the clean water, he is to marry a maiden; if into the dirty water, a widow; if into the empty dish he will be a bachelor. As each person takes his turn the position of the dishes is changed.

Of a more weird character is the celebrated sport of eating an apple before a looking glass, with the purpose of discovering the inquirer's future husband, who, it is believed, will be seen peering over her shoulder. Another rite of similar purpose is to wet a shirt sleeve, hang it up before a fire to dry, and lie in bed waiting until midnight, when the appearance of the individual's future partner will come in and turn the sleeve.
Small boys in the cities are unimaginative in these days and do not believe Hallowe'en appeals not by its spells and spirits, but by its association with mischievous pranks, such as ringing door-bells, putting "tick-tacks" upon front windows and indulging in other tricks of lice torment.

Virginia's Sunday School Enterprise.
The Virginia State Sunday School Association has recently undertaken the thorough organization of the State in the interest of Sunday schools, putting Virginia along side all the other great States, territories and provinces in the matter of organization, and keeping pace with the 15,000 city, county and district organizations now so effective and with the 120, 000 volunteer workers in the international inter-denominational field.

A new general secretary has recently been engaged and is devoting his entire time to the work.
Mr. Louis J. McIntosh, the new secretary, was formerly of Louisville, Ky., and actively engaged in practical organized denominational and inter-denomeni-tarian work, and comes to Virginia with full equipment, ready to render service wherever needed.

The State executive committee has opened a new office in the Chamber of Commerce building, room 65, which is to be headquarters hereafter for Virginia State Sunday School Association and interested Sunday school workers from any school, anywhere in the State or elsewhere, and where information pertaining to Sunday school statistics, equipment, methods and literature will be available.

A "Saint's" Demand.
In Secretary Bonaparte's mail yesterday was a postal card from New York and signed by someone who claimed to be a saint. The postal card was so closely written that it was hardly legible.
Enough of it was made out, however, to learn that the saint claimed that he had control over the terrors of the sea to such an extent that he thought he was entitled to a billion dollars in gold, which he wanted the nations of the world to pay.
He informed Mr. Bonaparte that he had wanted $3,000,000 in gold as a portion from the United States.

He declared that this money must be paid on the 18th or 19th of each month, and unless this was done dire calamities would visit this country, incidentally adding that if the money was not paid Russia and Washington would suffer. He said he had moved the earth, evidently referring to the San Francisco earthquake, so that he could see exactly what spots he had control of the sun, the moon and the stars, and if the payments in gold were not made all the prominent officials of the various governments would commit suicide, and, therefore, it behooved them to pay up soon.

Attempted Assault
Miss Prudence Brumbaugh, 17 years old, a daughter of John Brumbaugh, tenant on the Garland farm, three miles west of Hagerstown, Md., and a granddaughter of Orphans Court Judge J.
Nicholas Brumbaugh, was attacked by a white man yesterday evening.

Miss Brumbaugh had gone to a pasture field, about 300 yards from the barn, to bring the cows home, when the assault was attempted. Just as she was passing through a gate her assailant stepped out from behind a large tree, and grabbing the girl, forced her to follow him. He then tore off the girl's apron, and tearing it into strips, he bound her hands and feet. At the same time he struck matches and told the frightened girl that if she made an outcry or attempted to break away he would burn her alive.

About this time Miss Brumbaugh's 14 years-old sister, Lizzie Brumbaugh, approached the place. When the man saw the sister coming he fled, and no trace could be found of him afterward, although the neighborhood was searched by a determined band of farmers.

When Lizzie Brumbaugh reached the side of her sister the latter was in a dazed state. Despite the threats of the man, she attempted to scream for help, and when she did so he picked up a handful of dirt and forced it into her mouth. After the strips that bound her had been unfastened Miss Brumbaugh was able to walk to her home.

Clawed by a Lioness.
Emma Schell, a lion tamer, was terribly clawed by a lioness in front of a throne of 400 persons in Huber's Museum in New York, yesterday afternoon.
She performs with a lion and lioness, and in closing the act, opens the mouth of the lioness and then, putting her head close to the open jaws, blows "a kiss." The animal yesterday suddenly snarled at her and scratched, ripping a seam along the side of the face requiring 13 stitches. At the same time the lioness brought in her claw, ripping the other side of the woman's face so that 10 stitches were required. She whipped off the animal without a word, and reaching the door of the cage, escaped and fainted. She was taken to Bellevue Hospital for treatment.

Human Blood Marks.
A tale of horror was told by marks of human blood in the home of J. W. Williams, a well-known merchant of Bee, Ky. He writes: "Twenty years ago I had severe hemorrhages of the lungs, and was near death when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. It completely cured me and I have remained well ever since." It cures Hemorrhages, Chronic Coughs, Settled Colds and Bronchitis, and is the only known cure for Weak Lungs. Every bottle guaranteed by E. S. Leadbetter & Sons, Druggists 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS
AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea.
It is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Drop by drop the offensive discharge caused by Nasal Catarrh falls from the back of the nose into the throat, setting up an inflammation that is likely to mean Chronic Bronchitis. The certain, rational cure for Catarrh is Elly's Cream Balm, and the relief that follows even the first application cannot be told in words. Don't suffer a day longer from the discomfort of Nasal Catarrh. Cream Balm is sold by all druggists for 50 cents, or by mail by Elly Bros., 56 Warren street, New York.

JEWELRY.
Going Housekeeping?
If so, you can hardly get along without spoons, knives and forks. The silver-plated are without a doubt the most economical in use. They wear longer, look better and cost very little more than the ordinary kind.
We can even supply silver-plated knives with steel blades.
Your sideboard is hardly complete without a silver set. Silver cake and fruit baskets should also be placed there.
A candelabra with will brighten the table considerably. After the spread has been cleared off a silver fern dish should be placed on the table.
The necessary things in cut-glass are the decanter, the berry bowl and the celery dish.
In a great many homes the ice cream is served on cut glass plates.
On your dresser place a traveling alarm clock and a sterling silver or silver-plated toilet set, also a hat and clothes brush.
You will find plenty use of a number of small silver-plated trays. One has always so many trinkets to take care of.
There should be a jewel case on the dresser, a good place to keep the watch and Z-K Gold Chain.
